

Reverend Kenneth Lewis Bio

The Reverend Kenneth I. Lewis is an Ordained Elder in the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church of America, Inc.

Appointed as the Presiding Elder of the Nassau District, Bahamas Annual Conference on January 27, 2019, Reverend Lewis has been favored with more than 28 years of effective ministry in the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church.

Rev. Lewis has served historic congregations in the New England Annual Conference such as; Rush Memorial in Cambridge, MA. and Goodwin Memorial in Amherst, MA.

Since May 18, 2003, Rev. Lewis has served as the pastor of the Green Memorial A.M.E. Zion Church in Portland, Maine; the oldest Black institution in the State of Maine.

Presiding Elder Lewis also serves as the Chief of a Protocol and a Trustee of the New England Annual Conference.

Nationally, Rev. Lewis is a member of the Connectional Council and serves on the Board of Communication which oversees the Star of Zion, Quarterly Review, and all Publishing House materials.

Rev. Lewis is a native of Boston, Massachusetts and a product of the Boston Public Schools and Suffolk University.

In addition to active ministry he has amassed over thirty years of effective leadership as a senior manager for some of New England's largest financial services and healthcare organizations.

Reverend Lewis shares ministry and marriage with Mrs. Ethel W. Lewis and are the proud parents of two adult daughters, Alyssa K. Lewis and Chanel M. Lewis-Jones.