Bio of Presiding Elder
The Reverend Isidoa Branch, Sr.

I, Isidoa Branch, Sr., is a Presiding Elder in the New York Annual Conference, North Eastern Episcopal District of the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church. I am the Senior Presiding Elder in the New York Conference and Presides over the Westchester District.

I have pastored four churches in the New York Conference totaling twenty years; St. Matthew – Rockville Centre, New York; Calvary – Jamaica, New York; St. Francis – Mount Kisco, New York and Greater Hood – New York, New York. I was appointed Presiding Elder in the New York Annual Conference by Bishop George W. C. Walker, Sr. in 2001, where I served as Presiding Elder of the Long Island District for thirteen years. I was appointed Presiding Elder of the Westchester District by Bishop Dennis V. Proctor in 2014 where I am currently serving.

I am married to my wife Susan Branch for forty-nine years. We have two sons, who are pastors in the New York Conference, two daughters-in-law and three grandchildren.

Peace and Grace,
Isidoa Branch, Sr.
